

The Constitution of the Nizhnepartovsk Duchy

Preamble

I, JustAlex, the Duke of Nizhnepartovsk, establish this Constitution to seek the eternal peace and nobility. The people of Nizhnepartovsk unite under the wealth and prosperity to govern our Duchy. Gloriam aeternam habeat Nizhnepartovsk!

Chapter I: Identity

1. Nizhnepartovsk is a sovereign, indivisible Duchy organized as an executive constitutional monarchy.
2. Sovereignty resides solely in the Crown, held by Duke JustAlex and his legitimate successors.
3. Nizhnepartovsk is a project-state, the Duchy's jurisdiction extends over its citizens, digital infrastructure, embassies, and cultural property, independent of traditional physical land.
4. The official languages of Nizhnepartovsk are Russian and English, both holding equal legal validity.
5. The state anthem of Nizhnepartovsk is the Ode to Joy, symbolizing peace and global unity. The national flag is made of 3 horizontal bands (green, purple, green) with coat of arms in the center.

Chapter II: Leadership

6. The Duke is sacred, inviolable, and immune from all jurisdiction or legal prosecution.
7. All executive power is vested in the Duke. He directs state policy, manages international relations, and appoints all state officials.
8. No act of the State Council or public resolution shall have the force of law without the explicit signature and sanction of the Duke.
9. The Duke has the right to issue Ducal Decrees which possess immediate, supreme legislative power, bypassing all other state bodies.

Chapter III: Honors

10. The Duke is the sole source of all titles of nobility, knighthoods, and state awards.

Chapter IV: State Council

11. The legislative and administrative tasks of the Duchy are managed by the State Council.
12. The State Council is headed by a Chancellor, who is appointed and dismissed entirely at the pleasure of the Duke.
13. The Duke may prorogue or dissolve the State Council at any time, for any reason, by simple decree.

Chapter V: People's Rights and Duties

14. All citizens of Nizhnepartovsk are guaranteed the right to personal safety and peaceful existence, protected by the Crown. Any violation of another individual's boundaries, or any act disruptive to the peace of the Duchy shall result in the immediate forfeiture of these guarantees and subject the offender to penalty or the revocation of citizenship by Ducal Decree.

Chapter VI: Finances and the Constitution

15. The funding of the Ducal House shall be drawn from a permanent fund, which is not subject to revision or reduction by the State Council.
16. The right to initiate, amend, or supplement the articles of this Constitution belongs exclusively to the Duke.
